

LNAT Preparation Course at Oxford Tutorial College

Pre LNAT Course Preparation

An LNAT, interview and Oxford University focussed preparation pack will be dispatched via email to prospective students once they have committed to undertaking the LNAT course. It will contain guidelines and information on LNAT/interview expectations and also includes homework which prospective students should complete before beginning the course to glean as much benefit as possible.

10.00 Introduction and welcome

10.10 What the LNAT involves.

10.30 Outline of how to approach and structure essay based questions.

11.00 Group work session on essay based questions – small groups will discuss undertake essay based responses. (Alternatively on an individual basis).

12.30 Lunch break; Students' mock essay responses answers will be marked over lunch.

13.30 Multiple choice questions; this will involve reviewing the sample LNAT multiple choice questions students undertook within the preparation pack. Analysis of answers with guidance and advice on refining coarse and fine reasoning skills.

2.30 Mock multiple choice questions, students will be given the opportunity to hone acquired skills through a short mock test.

15.30 Question and Answer session

- Preparation for LNAT and interview
- What the Oxford undergraduate Law course involves
- The LNAT tutor's email address will be available for students to use as a resource particularly prior to the exam itself.

16.00 End of course