

HAT Preparation Course at OTC:

10.00 Introduction and welcome

10.10 What the HAT involves.

10.30 1st Group work session according to grid below

	Group A	Group B	Group C
10.30-11.10	Discussion of how to approach Question 1	Write mock answer to Question 2	Discussion of how to approach Question 1
11.10-11.50	Discussion of how to approach Question 1	Discussion of how to approach Question 1	Write mock answer to Question 2
11.50-12.30	Write mock answer to Question 2	Discussion of how to approach Question 1	Discussion of how to approach Question 1

Each discussion session on Question 1 will use a mixture of past papers and specially devised exercises similar in style to past HAT papers. The mock Question 2 will be specially devised but similar in style to past HAT papers.

12.30 Lunch break; Students' mock Question 2 answers will be marked over lunch.

13.30 2nd Group work session according to grid below

	Group A	Group B	Group C
13.30-14.10	Discussion of how to approach Question 1	Feedback on mock answer to Question 2	Discussion of how to approach Question 1
14.10-14.50	Discussion of how to approach Question 1	Discussion of how to approach Question 1	Feedback on mock answer to Question 2
14.50-15.30	Feedback on mock answer to Question 2	Discussion of how to approach Question 1	Discussion of how to approach Question 1

Each discussion session on Question 1 will use a mixture of past papers and specially devised exercises similar in style to past HAT papers.

15.30 Question and Answer session

- Preparation for HAT and interview
- What the Oxford undergraduate History course involves
- Suggestions for reading

16.00 End of course